ON-Q Human Resources

Imagine this!

Get a keen Trainee who is trained to the specific needs of your workplace.

Use flexible hours of work to suit the demands of your business (in consultation with the school).

Not have to pay wages for the time spent in training.

Have a direct say in the type of training program used.

Have on-going support and advice from our friendly ON-Q Human Resources Consultants.

Benefits to Students

Commencing and completing a Traineeship while still at school.

Earning money for the hours worked.

Establishing a smooth transition from school to work.

Gaining experience in an industry which could lead to an on-going career.

What will ON-Q do for you?

Help find the most suitable job for the Trainee.

Co-ordinate all on and off the job training.

Look after all the paperwork.

Liaise between the school, the host employer, the Trainee and the parents.

Closely monitor the Trainee's performance on a regular basis.

Remain the legal employer for the duration of the traineeship.

Why ON-Q?

What are School-based Traineeships?

These Traineeships are available to students (usually in Years 10, 11 and 12) and allow them to complete a Senior Certificate/HSC, while at the same time undertaking training and work.

School Based Trainees:

Are paid for the hours they work.

Undergo training on and off the job.
